

Deployment Transition Center

Resiliency Course Description
CAO 05 JAN 2023

Course Name/ Length	Description	Purpose/Outcome
Building Confidence 45 - 60 min	Gives an explanation on the importance of self-confidence and how it ties into self-esteem. Providing members with skills on how to develop, gain, and maintain self-confidence.	Airmen that lack confidence can negatively affect those around them, and the mission. This course will teach Airmen how to develop and grow their self-confidence, as well as highlight the benefits of self-confidence in their occupation, relationships, and lives in general.
Team Building 45 min	To inspire team members to work together, to develop their strengths, and to address any weaknesses. To highlight the importance of team dynamics and good communication between team members.	Having a cohesive and supportive team is vital to mission success. This lesson provides Airman an opportunity to work as a team, strengthening trust and communication, while also developing a better understanding of the ways their peers respond to different forms of communication and direction.
Positive Thinking, We are What We Think 45 - 60 min	Identify how your thoughts about an event contributes to your reactions. How you think about something drives how you react to it. Understanding the difference between your thoughts, emotional reactions, and physical reactions.	Provides a detailed explanation of what positive thinking is to help members identify and alter negative thinking patterns. Utilizing this skill will help improve performance, act based on values, and strengthen professional and personal relationships.
Emotional Bearings 30 - 45 min	Provides members with a basic understanding on types of emotions and the ability recognize and manage them appropriately. Gives tools to identify how different types of emotions influence relationships both personally and professionally.	Being able to recognize and manage different emotions in an appropriate and healthy manner will enhance members' abilities to be effective leaders and followers. The ability to understand, use, and manage your own emotions in positive ways to relieve stress, communicate effectively, empathize with others, overcome challenges and defuse conflict.
Effective Communication/ Active Listening 45 Min	Knowing how to properly send and receive information, to include the emotions associated with communication. Ensuring the accurate transmission of information and the ability to recognize when you aren't communicating effectively.	Communication and active listening skills are crucial if any objective is to be accomplished successfully. Enhancing Airmen's ability to convey and receive information to and from another effectively and efficiently in their professional and personal lives.
Stress Management 45 min	Provide information on identifying, short-term, long-term effects, and helpful strategies for stress management. To equip members with basic knowledge and tools to alleviate stress.	Stress is one of the most common issues Airman deal with today. This course teaches Airman the differences between distress and eustress, as well as what it looks like to work at your optimal performance with your current level of stress.

Giving and Taking Constructive Feedback 30 - 45 Min	To help members understand the differences between feedback and criticism. Provides members with the ability to effectively give and receive feedback both personally and professionally.	The ability to give and receive constructive feedback is essential for every Supervisor and Supervisee in today's Air Force, whether you are conducting an ACA or giving on-the-spot feedback. This course will teach Airman how to give and take constructive feedback respectfully and productively, to promote growth and competency.
Healthy Relations 30 - 45 min	Members are educated on the differences between healthy and unhealthy relationships. To improve on healthy relationship building and maintenance skills to reduce pitfalls, as well as, resources on how to get out of unhealthy relationships.	Unhealthy relationships can often lead to domestic violence, which is a major issue that impacts 1 in 4 women and 1 in 7 men. By providing the basic knowledge, members are better able to identify if there are issues or concerns within their relationship, utilize tools to improve their relationships and seek help when needed.
How to Connect 30 - 45 Min	Gives a detailed explanation on how military members can better connect with their social support network such as peers and family.	Provides members with a better sense of community/connection. Also provides a better understanding regarding the impact loneliness can have on one's life.
How to Resolve Conflict in the Workplace 30 - 45 Min	Conflict is common and often inevitable; knowing how to properly handle the situation can help keep communication productive and lead to possible resolutions.	Conflict can be detrimental to a unit's ability to work as a team. In this course, Airmen are taught how to identify and resolve conflict in a productive way, before it affects the morale of the unit and the ability to complete the mission.
Sleep Enhancement 30 - 45 Min	Provides members with a detailed explanation on skills and resources available for members to foster a comfortable sleep environment to optimize sleep cycles.	Fatigue is one of the leading causes of mishaps. This course will provide a detailed explanation on skills and resources available for members to utilize in order for them to foster a comfortable sleep environment. Additionally, adequate sleep has a positive influence on mood, concentration and physical wellness.
Responsible Drinking 45 - 60 min	Provides basic alcohol education and teach member's what responsible drinking is in order to prevent health problems associated with binge drinking and prevent alcohol related incidents.	One of the leading causes of negative impact on USAF careers is alcohol-related incidents. By providing tools and real-world interactive descriptions of what responsible drinking is, members maybe less inclined to be involved with negative behavior in the future.