

CIVILIAN PERSONNEL FACT SHEET

DANGER PAY AND POST DIFFERENTIAL

Current as of: 5 Feb 08

Danger Pay is an allowance of up to 25 percent over basic compensation paid to employees permanently or temporarily serving at a designated danger pay post.

REGULATION: Department of State Standardized Regulations (DSSR), Section 260: <http://aoprals.state.gov/>

ELIGIBILITY: All employees located at a designated danger pay posts for more than 4 hours.

SPECIFICS:

- Rates can be found at <http://aoprals.state.gov/>
- Employees permanently serving at a danger pay post submit SF1190 at the time of arrival and any time they depart the post.
- Employees on detail at a danger pay posts claim the danger pay at the Overseas Allowances Section of the Ramstein Civilian Personnel Flight.
  - Documentation required: SF1190, orders, copy of travel voucher.

NOTE: Danger pay is taxable. Post allowance will be adjusted after 30 days absence from post.

Post Differential is a hardship allowance of up to 25 percent over basic compensation paid to eligible employees permanently or temporarily serving at a designated differential post.

REGULATION: Department of State Standardized Regulations (DSSR), Section 260: <http://aoprals.state.gov/>

ELIGIBILITY: All eligible employees (DSSR 31.3) serving at designated differential posts for more than 42 days. (Eligible employees are employees who receive LQA Living Quarters Allowance).

SPECIFICS:

- Rates can be found at <http://aoprals.state.gov/>
- Employees permanently serving at a differential post submit SF1190 at the time of arrival and any time they depart the post.
- Employees on detail at post differential posts claim the post differential at the Overseas Allowances Section of the Ramstein Civilian Personnel Flight if they spent more than 42 consecutive days at the post.
  - Documentation required: SF1190, orders, copy of travel voucher.

NOTE: Post differential is taxable. Post allowance will be adjusted after 30 days absence from post. Assistance will be provided by the Overseas Allowances Section of the Ramstein Civilian Personnel Flight, DSN 480-5774.